How to Enrol

1. Complete the Application Form and send it with your past academic records, a recent photo and a character reference, by fax, post, or email.
2. We will send you, or your agent, a provisional offer of place and an invoice for the fees. A provisional offer is necessary until the required placement test and interview is completed, either in your country or in New Zealand, and the level of course is agreed upon.
3. You send your tuition fees and related costs directly to our bank by Telegraphic transfer. Please do not forget to add who is sending the money, and the name of the student the fees are for.
